

SUED FOR COST OF GOWNS.

Mrs. William Butler Duncan of Port Washington, L. I., and Mrs. Henry F. Godfrey of Old Westbury, both well known in society, were sued in the Supreme Court yesterday by Louise Girault and Marie A. Sile, dressmakers of Paris, who allege the defendants owe them for gowns.

It is alleged that Mrs. Duncan bought dresses in May, 1911, and in June, 1912, on which there is a balance of $3,251 due, and that Mrs. Godfrey made purchases on which $4,319 is due.

Operating nine eyeglass repair shops, we are perfectly equipped to repair or replace (accurately and skillfully) any part of an eyeglass in a short time—in many cases in ten to fifteen minutes.

Our prices for lenses are from twenty-five per cent. to thirty-three per cent. lower than those of others—this is due to our tremendous volume of business.

Ours is the Largest Optical House in the World.

Lenses replaced for from 50 cents up.

BURGLARS DRILL SAFE OF GREAT NECK P. O. AND THEN RUN AWAY

Had Previously Broken Into Barn and Garages for Tools—Miss $2,000 in Loot.

If you have friends in Great Neck Station, L. I., and don't know their exact address, don't visit them to-day. It might be unsafe. You might be "pinched" and sloughed away in the town "cooler."

When Postmaster George Uhl opened up for business yesterday morning he stepped blithely inside and found himself tangled up in about twenty-five feet of fuse which unknown marauding visitors had left on the floor during the night. Nearby was a percussion cap, the use of which he immediately ceased.

The office safe, containing about $2,000 in cash and stamps, was in its usual place, concealed under a covering of horse blankets. A five-eighths-inch hole had been drilled through the safe door, just under the combination, and when that had been done and the whole job finished except pouring in the "soup" and touching it off, the intruder had been unaccountably taken flight. They had come in through a rear window, which they had forced, and left by the rear door, which, also, they had forced.

They were in no hurry, for when they left they took time to gather all their tools, leaving no clues except the fuse, the detonating cap and the horse blankets, which still were keeping the safe warm. Mr. Uhl recognized the blankets as belonging to his predecessor in office, George A.

Duck, whose premises adjoin the Post Office. The Duck barn had been entered, as had several other barns and garages in the vicinity, for various articles necessary in successful safe blowing. Besides the sound-deadening blankets the burglars had been in need of a dry electric battery to be used in working the drill. This they found in the garage of Charles E. Smith, a few doors away, after having been foiled by the stout doors that keep intruders out of Electric Engineer Louis Gregory's place. But they found what they wanted at Smith's.

For several days three men have been noticed about Great Neck Station asking about the more wealthy residents and where they lived. They haven't been seen since the attempted safe robbery in the Post Office, but during the last two days and nights every garage owner in Great Neck, at some unseemly hour, has been awakened by somebody trying to break in.

That's the reason why it will be unsafe for a few days, at least, for strangers to express any curiosity as to the whereabouts of any body living there.

SCHOOL BOARD QUARRELS BUT AGREES ON PEANUT

The Board of Education fell to quarrelling yesterday when it took up the question as to how it could get along on $2,000,000 less than last year, as demanded by the Board of Estimate. Commissioner W. G. Willcox said the economy suggestions should be heeded unless it could be shown that they were impractical.

"I know of no practical suggestion by the Estimate Board that could be adopted without curtailing educational activities," retorted President Churchill. "We ought to be divorced from City Hall."

"Well," broke in Isadore M. Levy, "I think this board could institute lots of economies."

Public School No. 18, Corona, in Queens, was granted permission to hold a peanut sale for needy children.

MEN'S CLOTHING

A man thinks about his clothes when he is buying them and he generally wants to forget about them after they are purchased. In other words he doesn't want to feel impelled to pull up his collar or shrug his neck to be certain the collar is lying right when another's eyes rest critically upon his clothes during an interview.

Lord & Taylor clothes for men "stay put" and remain sold. They represent values in style, distinctiveness, comfort and correctness.

The fit is perfect before a suit or an overcoat leaves the Men's Section with our sanction.

The materials are just as good as the best woollens used in made-to-measure clothes. For example:

The Finely Hand-Tailored Suits at $25.00 represent every conceivable correct style. Two, three or four button models for All Men, whether their tastes lean toward the conservative or to the smart youthful lines.

Men's Imported Coats The "Warmth Without Weight" Sort $27.50

From London and made for Lord & Taylor by one of the style authorities there. All wool "showproof" and of such fine quality that duplicating the materials now would be difficult. Raglan or regular sleeves and in a large selection of shades and mixtures.

Overcoats to Please the Critical $19.50 to $50.00

Form-fitting or loose slip-on models. Hundreds of coats to choose from in as good materials as we could buy. Finely finished and tailored.
